Seven College Heads To Visit WT Friday

Ten-Year Program For the Institutions To Be Discussed by the College Presidents

Presidents of the seven Teachers Colleges will meet here Friday and Saturday for a business session which largely will be concerned with the ten-year program being developed for them by the board of regents and architects.

While here they will be presented to the student body in assembly. They will see the Buffalo-Simmons Cowboy football game Friday night.

Former Senator R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth, president of the board of regents, will attend the gathering, as also will John E. Hill of Amarillo, another member of the board. A. H. Eubanks of McKinney, a third member, may accompany Senator Stuart here.

Coordination of the program in the several schools is being sought by the regents, who with the aid of the college presidents, are drafting plans for expansion designed to serve the various sections of the state more efficientdy and more adequately.

Last year the ex-student associations of the Teachers Colleges were federated, with Lee Gilmore, superintendent of Wheeler schools, as general president. Mr. Gilmore also heads the alumni of West Texas State. The federated ex-students, who are combining their efforts in behalf of higher education, will have their second annual session in Houston November 27 during the annual meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Education Board Buys Refinancing Bonds of School

Interest Rate Will Be Reduced on Bonds of Canyon Independent School District

Refinancing the bonded indebtedness of the Canyon Independent School District will be accomplished by Wednesday of next week unless some unforeseen difficulties arise.

G. W. Cox, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and Secretary S. B. Orton, appeared before the State Board of Education in Austin Monday and this board agreed to buy $141,000 bonds offered in the transaction. The bonds are being printed in Austin and will be ready for the signatures of Mr. Cox and Mr. Orton by Friday.

A meeting of the trustees was held Tuesday morning and necessary orders were passed to complete the deal. Mr. Orton returned to Austin Tuesday night and will take all of the papers to the Attorney General, asking for a hearing today.

Holders of the present bonds recently gave the local school board an option on the bonds, but this week notified the local school authorities that the deal must be completed by Oct. 20.

If the deal is put over, the district will save a considerable amount of money on interest. The present bonds draw 5½% interest, while the new bonds which the state will buy draw only 4% interest.

Before leaving Mr. Orton expressed the belief that the bonds would be ready for delivery at least by Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Fifty New CCC Boys Arrive at Palo Duro Park

Fifty new CCC boys arrived at the Palo Duro State Park Tuesday to replace boys whose enlistment expired on the first of the month. The company is not yet filled, and other men are expected to arrive in a few days.

Supt. Wm. Anderson states that he has been called upon to submit projects for the coming period, ending July 1st of next year.

A water well was sunk on the highway right-of-way just west of the W. G. Rose home, and it is proposed to use the well to furnish water for the camp. Water is now being pumped at the Finch place. The new well is a little farther away from camp, but there is sufficient fall to take water into camp by gravity. Water has to be lifted over a hill at the present location.

No meeting of the Texas State Parks Board was held this month, according to word from Austin. It was proposed that some definite actions be taken in regard to the future of the Palo Duro State Park at the meeting which was called for last week. Chairman Weldon Mayes of the board is expected at the Palo duro during the coming week.

Harold Butler, 22, died Tuesday morning in the Tulia hospital after a short illness. Freshman football squad last year but did not come out for football this fall.

Surviving is his widow; mother, Mrs. T. B. Butler, and four brothers.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist Church in Tulia Wednesday afternoon, and was attended by many Canyon friends.

ILLINOIS COUPLE HIGHLY PLEASED WITH CANYON

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rogers of Cambridge, Illinois, were here for several days this week looking after their land. The Melvin Miller family lives on their farm.

This was the first trip of Mrs. Rogers, but Mr. Rogers has been here several times. He has not visited the county in seven years and was highly pleased with conditions that he found. He marveled at the improvements which had been made since his last trip.

Mr. Rogers has owned land here since 1906. He recalled conditions that existed in Randall county when he first came here, and believes firmly in the future of the development of the county.

Buffs To Tackle Cowboys

Seek to Widen 15th Street in Front Postoffice

Citizens Request City Commission to Run Curb of Street At the Sidewalk

Mayor C. R. Burrow is investigating the possibilities of further widening the street in front of the postoffice to the present sidewalk line. He has conferred with the postoffice officials laying before them the necessity of this action. At the time the curb was put in, the city proposed to widen to the sidewalk, but objections were raised by the postal authorities.

The heavy traffic in front of the postoffice is given as the necessity of making further provisions to take care of this traffic through a wider street.

A considerable amount of the dirt that was hauled to the lawn was rejected by postal inspectors as being unfit for starting a lawn. The contractor is required to take out this dirt and replace it with good rich top dirt on which grass will grow.

A number of citizens appeared before the city commission Friday making the request that the street be widened.

New screens are being installed on the postoffice building this week.

Simmons To Bring One of Toughest Teams in Southwest To Meet the Buffs Friday

BAND IS COMING

Colorful Cowboy Band To Put on Exhibition Between Halves

After a lapse of four years, football rivalry between Hardin-Simmons and West Texas will be renewed in Buffalo Stadium Friday night in the game that is booked to be the most attractive in the Panhandle this season.

The famous Cowboy Band will accompany the football team here Friday and will put on an exhibition between the halves. This band has made several national tours, as well as an extended tour of Europe. The band promises to put on one of the most colorful exhibitions that has ever been seen at the Buffalo Stadium.

For numerous reasons this game provides especial interest for followers in this region. Both coaches, Al Baggett of the Buffaloes and Frank Kimbrough of the Punchers, were former coaches of Amarillo Junior College and both produced state junior college championship teams.

The Abilene team is composed almost entirely of former Panhandle high school stars. When Kimbrough transferred to Simmons he took along the majority of his all-state junior college men. A look at the starting lineup reveals the whole story. Ed Cherry, Shamrock; Eldon Mahuron, Amarillo; Burns McKinley, Wichita Falls, and Conway Frost of McLean, comprise the first backfield. In the front wall are Leslie Clary, Paducah, and Bud Reeves, Wichita Falls, ends; Otis Crowell, Matador, Max Alexander of Etherridge, Tenn., tackles; Vestal Newberry, Childress and Frank Selfridge, Borger, guards, and Edgar Bigelow, Amarillo, center.

Offensive strength of the club focuses about the accurate throwing arm of Burns (Mo) McKinney, Wichita Falls, co-captain, and Ed Cherry, Shamrock, fullback. In their 21-0 victory over the Kentucky State team at Murry, Ky., McKinney connected with 8 of his 13 for-

Cold Wave and Rain Hits Panhandle Tuesday

Third of Inch Moisture Will Be of Great Aid to Wheat Crop That Is Planted

Rain amounting to .33 of an inch fell in Canyon Tuesday evening. Rain has extended over the Southwest during the past week.

While the rain was not sufficient to be of great aid to the wheat crop, it will moisten the top of the ground and keep alive the young wheat. No moisture has fallen here since the middle of September.

The temperature dropped very suddenly Tuesday, reaching 42 degrees.

Snow was reported on the North Plains, but so far frost has not hit this section. Most of the feed crop has been cut, so that frost would do no particular damage at this time.

A heavy mist is falling this morning, with good indications for more rain during the day.

Upchurch Requests Drouth Rates Continue For County

County Agent W. H. Upchurch left Sunday for Austin where he appeared before the railroad commission asking that the drouth freight rates be continued for Randall county.

The railroads are fighting a continuation of the special rates which have been granted in the dust bowl in the past.

Mr. Upchurch took a large amount of data to support the plea of a need for continuing the lower freight rates.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster returned yesterday from a vacation trip to Dallas. They spent the week end at the Rev. Chas. L. Dickey home in Paris.

President Calls a Special Session of Congress Nov. 15

President Roosevelt called a special session of Congress Tuesday which will convene on Nov. 15th. The call was announced just before the President gave another of his famous fireside talks to the world over an international radio hook-up.

The President has placed farm legislation at the head of the list for congress to act upon. Congressman Marvin Jones of this district has been working on the farm relief bill for several months and has stated that it will be ready for congress when the special session is called.

President Roosevelt made the call for the special session after his western trip when he conferred with the powerful political leaders of the entire West as to the most pressing needs of the day.

Attendance Prizes Given at Each Session of Cooking School

Nearly 200 women attended the first showing of the Cooking School picture at the Olympic Theatre yesterday morning. Only words of praise were heard for this eight-reel feature as the women filed out of the building after viewing the first cooking school picture that has ever been filmed.

The picture is being shown again this morning, and will have its last showing at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning.

"The Bride Wakes Up" is brought to Canyon by The Canyon News as an education feature. The News is a member of the National Editorial Association, which sponsored the production of this feature. Canyon is one of the first towns in the Panhandle to secure the showing of the feature.

As the visitors arrived for the feature, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mrs. Dan K. Usery and Mrs. N. T. Dickerson assisted in their registration. At the end of the feature, attendance prizes were distributed. These prizes had been contributed by local firms and national advertisers. Printed recipes were given to each woman who attended.

Those who were not able to attend the Cooking School yesterday or today are urged to see this splendid feature Friday, as this will be the last time that it will be shown in this section of the state.

President Hill In Austin as Appropriation Cut Proposed

Governor James V. Allred called President J. A. Hill to Austin Monday afternoon when the legislature proposed to reduce appropriations rather than increase tax levies to care for the deficit now existing in the state treasury.

The movement to cut present appropriations started in the Senate. A bill is being written to reduce appropriations for state educational institutions. A similar bill for the departments is now being considered by the Senate. It is proposed to reduce the appropriation bill which was passed by the regular session of the legislature several million dollars.

The matter of appropriations was not submitted by the Governor. The question has not been considered by the House. Indications are that should the Senate pass such reduction measures and should the House agree, that the Governor will veto the measures.

Prospects Are Good For Early Start on Construction Dam

Preliminary work on securing the land and drawing the plans for the big dam south of Umbarger seems to be well underway. Announcement may be expected from Washington within a few days that a contract is being let for the construction.

W. A. Warren, vice-president of the Panhandle Water Authority, has been in daily contact with Amarillo men who are working on the project, and everything seems to be moving as rapidly as possible.

In the meanwhile, Randall county is short more than 40 applications for the small dams which the government proposes to build under the recent bill passed through congress by Marvin Jones. More than 50 applications have been approved and sent to Washington, but 100 applications are sought from each county of the Panhandle.

PREJUDICES PREVAIL

David M. Warren of the Panhandle Herald had a very thoughtful editorial last week upon the question of county consolidations While most folks continue to howl about the mounting cost of government, Mr. Warren shows how utterly we disregard the savings which might be made in our own counties if the cost of local government was reduced.

Mr. Warren points to the many possibilities of county consolidations in the Panhandle. But the people of various counties are not interested in such movements.

The voters of Texas rejected a constitutional amendment two years ago which did nothing more than provide a plan for consolidating counties. The voters showed themselves to be so much afraid of losing the various county seats over the state that they rejected even a plan to make consolidation possible.

The following is the editorial:

County consolidation is a subject that will be brought up more and more in future years, but it is going to take a long time to get any where with the movement.

People are proud of their small units of county government. Consolidation may enable some savings, but it is evident now that the people would rather pay more taxes and have counties about the present size. However, there should be more consolidation of taxes units within the counties.

Some of the important cities are at the edge of the counties, and consolidations could be effected, but the counties with smaller population probably would not like to be dominated by the ones with more people.

For instance, Amarillo is at the edge of Potter county and spreads into Randall, but the latter county would not like to be run by Amarillo.

That practically holds true for Dallam and Hartley counties, as Dalhart is on the line.

Borger is in the south part of Hutchinson county, but Carson would not like to be attached to that county. Neither would Carson like to be a part of Gray county with Pampa as the county seat.

Memphis is in a corner and possibly could serve Hall, Donley and Collingsworth counties. But Memphis would never do it with the consent of Deskins Wells of the Wellington Leader and Sam Braswell of the Clarendon News or J. C. Estlack of the Donley County Leader.

Deaf Smith is a big county and Hereford is at the edge, and could possibly serve Parmer and Castro counties. Or possibly Friona could be made into a county seat to serve both Deaf Smith and Parmer counties. And there is Vega in the southern part of Oldham county that could be made a county seat for Oldham and Deaf Smith counties.

Wheeler and Collingsworth counties could be joined with a court house at Shamrock.

Consolidation will never take place with local votes. It will take legislative enactment to make this kind of consolidation and tax economy. This paper is not favorable to county consolidation now because it would cause too much ill will among people who should be friends.

Texans have been amused or disgusted during the past three years at the antics of editors of the Daily Texan, sutdent publication of the University of Texas, who have set about to reform the world. As a result of these antics it was necessary to clamp censorship upon three different editors. A new editor took charge of the Daily Texan this fall. He, too, is a crusader, but instead of attacking men and measures regarding which he knew little or nothing, he decided to look into the eating places of the 10,000 students attending the University. Members of his staff and photographers made a trip of inspection. After three days of investigation pictures and facts were published by the Daily Texan. As a result a wholesale clean-up campaign swept Austin, with the whole-hearted support of the city commission and State Health Department, as well as those eating places which were trying to run sanitary places. Reformers of this nature are worth something to mankind.

Thoughtful people of this nation gravely cheer the announcement of President Roosevelt that this nation stands for lasting peace. The President points to the Chinese-Japanese situation, and to the Spanish condition where Italy and Germany are openly sponsoring a war against the loyalists of that unfortunate nation. Americans do not wish to be embroiled in another world war. The citizens of this nation would greatly regret to see the time come when boys and men would be forced to go abroad to fight a foreign foe. Chances are that should such a thing happen again that this nation would be left to pay the bill, as in the case of the world war. War is the most terrible thing in the world; the most wasteful; the most foolish; yet nations are sometimes forced into war against their own will. If America is forced into another world war, it will most certainly be against the will of most of the people of this nation.

The fight between Governor Allred and the legislature has reached a serious stage. If the legislature succeeds in recalling appropriations and making a slash in the bills which were passed by the legislature and approved by the Governor, it would be a most unusual condition. The state would certainly not be playing fair with those who hold contracts for either labor or materials. While the economy move may be more or less of a bluff as between the legislature and the Governor, the seriousness of the situation causes citizens to wonder to what extreme political leaders will go in their fight as between the legislature and executive branches of government. The heart of the fight is that many in the legislature are opposed to making additional tax levies to take care of the various functions of government which have been unwritten by a vote of the people of the state.

Military experts now declare that the Chinese-Japanese fracas has disclosed that Japan is not more than a third rate military power. The Japs are shown up as not being able to efficiently fly; are poor gunners; that they have failed miserably in all departments of warfare against a much less trained Chinese force. The Japs answer that they do not have their best troops in China, keeping these in reserve along the Russian frontier. In the meanwhile innocent women and children are being slaughtered in an undeclared war, and millions of dollars of Chinese property is sacrificed to the whims of the Japs.

War is a profession with many men. There are thousands of Americans in both Spain and China fighting on one side or the other. These are professional warriors who get a great thrill out of joining in any kind of a war which may be conveniently at hand. No one can have much sympathy for those who get mixed up in such wars, since in one way or another the presence of Americans in the fray extends to the warring nations a false hope that the sympathies of the entire nation are with the men so engaged.

Wally and Eddie are coming to the United States next month. Now we shall have something to talk about instead of the case of Mr. Justice Black.

Contests for Sixty 4-H Club Girls to Be Held on Campus

Sixty rural girls, representing the entire Panhandle area will be campus visitors October 23 when winners in the county 4-H Club contests meet to decide district winners in the canning and clothing events.

The contest at W. T. is being held as a substitute for the usual A. & M. short course contests, not held this summer because of the infantile paralysis epidemic.

According to Miss Frances Wilroy, County Demonstration Agent, judging of canning contest is to begin in the foods laboratory at 10 o'clock, Oct. 23, by Miss Grace I. Neeley, extension specialist in food preservation. The clothing event will be held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home economics lecture room and will be judged by Mrs. Odra R. Barnes, extension specialist in clothing. Miss Wilroy says that she also plans an educational tour of the college for the visitors.

Varied Program To Welcome Exes Back To Campus

An address by John Templeton Graves II, a football game between the Buffaloes and Northwestern Teachers, coronation ceremonies for an ex-student beauty queen, a barbecue, and an ex-student dance are among the highlights of a program planned to welcome former students back to the campus for homecoming festivities.

Miss Anna I. Hibbets, chairman of the faculty committee in charge of homecoming arrangements said, "The faculty and student body are working cooperatively in planning to make the event most enjoyable and profitable, surpassing all previous programs. The campus organizations are rendering invaluable service in the preparations and will add color and life to the festivities throughout the celebration."

Graves To Speak

Following the custom of bringing a nationally known speaker to the campus for homecoming, John Temple Graves II, renowned author, sportsman, and newspaperman, has been invited to speak. Graves is a man of varied experiences, having served in the artillery during the World War, and as editor of several newspapers.

Opening the celebration, exes and their friends will gather at Cousins Hall at 8 o'clock October 22 for entertainment at the Homecoming night club which will consist of four units—the western room, little Mexico, fine arts room, and peacock alley. In the western room frontier days will be revived with costumed dancing, old-time fiddling, and even a bar will add to the frontier atmosphere. An ex-student believe-it-or-not will also be revealed in the western room.

Coronation at Night Club

Little Mexico will feature a floor show, singing, cabaret dancing, and a Gypsy fortune teller. In peacock alley, ex-student beauties will pass on the way to the coronation ceremony. This ceremony will be staged in the fine arts room. Though not a costumed affair, exes with western or Mexican costumes are asked to wear them.

Following Graves' address, a barbecue luncheon will be served at Buffalo Field. The T-Anchor farm boys are in charge of arrangements.

At 2 o'clock the Buffaloes will meet the Northwestern Teachers College from Alva, Oklahoma. The football queen, elected by members of the squad, will be honored at the game. Former football players will also be honored at the half time. Prof. Mitchell Jones is in charge of the parade of former W. T. football heroes. In addition to the Buffalo Band, several high school bands will be on hand to add color to the occasion.

Dance at Burton Gym

Climaxing the festivities an ex-student dance under the auspices of six campus social clubs will be held at Burton Gymnasium at 8 o'clock.

Time between scheduled events will offer exes a chance to visit old haunts and to meet old friends. Special entertainments honoring the exes are being planned by clubs and organizations.

The following assignments to help with the arrangements have been made to clubs and individuals: Decorations and signs, Epsilon Beta; policing the grounds, Alpha Sigma Xi; parade, Tri-Tau; night club guides, Delta Zeta Chi; ushers in the auditorium, Gamma Phi; football queen sponsors, Pi Omega; barbecue, T-Anchor boys; information booth at stadium entrance, Wranglers; information booth in Administration Building, Y. W. C. A.; guides Saturday morning, Greek letter organizations; ex-student registration, W. E. Lockhart; ex-football men's parade, Mitchell Jones; night club, Mrs. Tommie Montfort; night club hostess, Miss Mattie Swayne; and ex-student headquarters, Miss Ruth Lowes.

Extra NYA Grant For W. T. Students Is Authorized

An extra grant of $315 per month for W. T. student aid, details of which are explained in a letter from J. C. Kellum, NYA director for Texas, has been authorized by the National Youth Administration.

This aid is to benefit students whose finances have been affected by drouth conditions, and therefore, according to the conditions of the grant, should be awarded largely to students from farm homes.

The NYA Committee has selected the following students for the aid from among the many applicants:

Frances Phillips, Myrtice Kinard, Dorothy Terry, Roscoe Kilcrease, Doris Connally, Lawrence Traylor, Mary Gordon, Frances Armstrong, Lynard Riley, Robinette Ridgeway, Raussia Lee Cantrell, Vinita Lee Webb, Bill Culbirth, John Kimmins, Ethel Carter, Mary Collins, Mildred Shuman, Sidney Burgess, George Schmitz, Virginia Lee Hussey, George Smith, and two students selected by Coach Al Baggett.

"The Rest of the Record"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

I regret that the first ten days of the special session wound up in a bitter personal attack upon me. I have been called so many mean things that I just decided I couldn't possibly be as bad as I was painted.

Anyway, the people are not interested in personalities. They are interested in what the legislature does. The revenue-raising situation is more acute than even I had suspected.

* * *

This week the entire membership of the Board of Control issued a written statement that unless additional money was raised by the legislature at once for old age assistance, the board will have to suspend payments for two or three months after November 1st. They pointed out to the legislature, as I had done, that the old age assistance fund owes $1,627,000 to Dallas banks on past due warrants. This money has been due nearly a year and the banks have demanded payment.

The Board stated they felt as I do—that more money should be paid to the old folks so as to increase the amount of payments and add more people to the old age assistance rolls through the coming winter months. They said the present grants average $14.00 a month, but unless the legislature provides more money the Board will have to reduce these payments.

That puts it squarely up to the legislature! I have called them in special session and have made my recommendations. As yet no bill has been passed, but I hope by the time you read this column that the lower house will have sent a tax bill to the Senate. You see, under the Constitution, tax bills must originate in the House; and the Senate has been marking time while some members were talking about the vast sums of money they could save by economies if appropriations were submitted. Last week a majority of the Senate ruled that I did submit appropriations and economies. It is up to them now to demonstrate to the taxpayers how the Senate can save all these millions they talk about by cutting down the very appropriations voted by them in the regular session against my recommendations. We shall see.

* * *

One fact remains: if they make any economies it will only help the general fund, which is more than fifteen million dollars overdrawn. We still must have more money for old age assistance, and we can't economize there. We must have some money for aid to the blind and to dependent children; we have got to carry out our contract with the teachers.

Remember—unless some money is raised for these purposes by this legislature the old folks are going to suffer even more and we will have failed to carry out the President's program for the blind and for under-privileged children which was voted by the people. Those of you who are interested should let your senators and representatives know how you feel about the matter.

* * *

I was very happy last week when Senator Clay Cotten of Palestine made a speech on the Senate floor in defense of the President and his program. He said in part:

"In reply to a statement by the Governor of Texas that the issue now drawn before this Senate is one of human rights against property rights, the Senator from Galveston is quoted as having said: 'Every tyrant from Nero to Franklin D. Roosevelt has used that argument.'

"I am indeed sorry for him or any other man who becomes so wrapped up and warped in his own opinions that he would reach the point where he would brand not only the governor of this state, but our beloved President, as a tyrant comparable to Nero.

"I want and I think this Senate wants the people of the country to know that in his vicious assaults upon President Roosevelt the Senator from Galveston does not speak for the great masses of the people. . . . He does not voice even the sentiments of the people of his own district.

". . . Franklin D. Roosevelt has not only brought back prosperity to the captains of industry, but through his social security program he has ministered to the aged needy and has provided funds which, if Texas will but do its part, will feed the hungry and clothe the naked throughout our borders.

"It is not going to be any pleasure to me to have to vote for taxes . . . but we have no option. The people have spoken at the ballot box. They told this legislature to provide for the needy old people . . . for aid to the blind . . . to help unfortunate children.

"This state is rich in resources. We can provide these funds without substantial injury to anyone by taking only a small portion of the vast profits being made in this state. . . . I would respect the wishes of my people by voting for adequate tax revenues at this special session."

Netmen are Blanked By Experienced Tech Men 6-0 Saturday

Inaugurating their season Saturday afternoon on the Tech tennis courts, the experienced racqueteers of West Texas were defeated by a seasoned Texas Tech crew 6-0.

Displaying amazing power the Techsters rolled up point after point being halted only once when Mc[illegible]don, playing in the number two slot, surprised an over-confident Wilson Chapman, border conference champion. However a bad break in the form of a skid that resulted in a sprained knee halted McLendon's victory march and Chapman, using placements to keep the ball away from the limping McLendon, ran on out 1-6, 7-5, 6-4.

Norton Curry, playing in the number one niche, bucked up against a titian in short-statured Sidney Moore. Moore, using terrific flat drives, literally blasted Curry off the courts winning 6-3, 6-1.

Lynard Riley fared little better with the consistent stroking of Aubrey McCarty and was downed 6-3, 6-0. Frank Kelly, a little awed by the vaunted prowess of Tech's Harry Jordan, nevertheless made a fight of it, but experience told in the final score of 6-3, 6-2.

Throughout the matches the Buffalo netmen evidenced lack of seasoning. Another week's practice should serve to put the tennisters in fine shape for their second engagement against the strong Panhandle A. & M. Aggies at Goodwell.

The Peoples Store

If Your Product Is Sold Nationally

It Can Be Sold In This Community

Come on! Let's do the town!

Across the street from that filling station (selling a national brand of gas) is a big food market. Shelf after shelf of national brands—cereals, canned goods, specialties, biscuits, coffee, tea, California oranges, Florida grapefruit—everything!

Next door an auto sales-room displays a popular make of car. Up the block, across from the movie, a hardware merchant shows a window of radios and refrigerators—all national makes. A tobacco shop sells nationally advertised cigarettes, drug stores sell national drugs, beauty shops recommend nation-known cosmetics.

A thriving, busy, nationally-minded community of people who are well dressed, prosperous—eager to buy. They know values—products. Why? They read their local newspaper and heed the advertisements listed in its columns.

If your product is sold nationally is can be sold in this community. And the best way to sell it is to advertise it in this community newspaper reaching a majority of the substantial families, reaching them consistently, week-after-week, in their homes.

Missouri Farm Prepares for Big Event of Corn Belt—National Husking Contest

ON Nov. 4, on one of the largest farms in Saline county, Missouri, close to 100,000 people will gather for a show which they consider far better than any football game or world series.

They regard the National Cornhusking Championship as tops. And tops it is in many respects.

Wherever farmers gather in the great corn belt of the United States, the ultimate topic of conversation is the National Husking Championship.

It all started 14 years ago when an enterprising individual named Henry Wallace debated with friends the question of how much corn a man could shuck in any given time. The only way to decide was to have a contest.

So Henry Wallace, now secretary of agriculture, started the ball rolling. When entries from Nebraska and Illinois took part it assumed a national aspect.

* * *

EIGHT HUNDRED people came to see Fred Stanek, an Iowa farmer, win that first title.

Last year more than 100,000 people gathered in Licking county, Ohio, to see Carl Carlsen, also of Iowa, win the 1936 championship.

The sport has grown with mushroom rapidity. The 80-minute test of eye and muscle provides plenty of entertainment. A city dweller might think it monotonous for both spectator and contestant, but the high-speed stripping of ear after ear of corn from tall, dried stalks can be very exciting.

Armed with a short steel husking implement, the contestants sweep down their rows of corn, shucking it as rapidly as possible and bouncing it off the backboard of a wagon that follows them.

Top above is an aerial view showing part of the crowd of more than 100,000 that attended the 1936 corn husking contest in Licking county, Ohio, while below is Carl Carlsen, Iowa farmer, shown exhibiting the championship form that brought him the title.

The tension can be terrific. Each state in the corn belt, including Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin, and neighboring states, sends one, two, or three champions. The partisanship is as intense as at any college football game.

Wives, sweethearts, friends—all follow as closely as possible the progress of their favorites. And not until the judges have gone through a lengthy checking and weighing process can the final results be determined.

* * *

LAST year's titlist succeeded his brother, Elmer Carlsen, who in winning the 1935 contest set a new record of 41.52 bushels husked.

The stand of corn on the Weber brothers' farm north of Marshall, Mo., where this year's event is to be held, is being made ready for some of the most spirited competition yet seen.

Newspapers will make much of the story, interest being so widespread. A simple enough event, with its lack of ostentation and commercialism, no admission is charged to the contest field. The cash value of the championship is a $100 first prize.

But it's just as much a show for the city folks as it is for their country cousins—and 100,000 people can't be far from right.

Buffalo Band To Attend Barbecue For Potter Exes

West Texas State's Buffalo band will attend the barbecue given by Potter county ex-students at Jack Hall's ranch October 17.

This announcement was made here after a conference between Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the College, and Carl Clifft, president of the Potter county alumni.

With the band will go many Canyon ex-students, faculty members and students to swell the attendance at the outdoor gathering. Tickets, priced at 50 cents, are on sale at the College Bookstore. Announcements of the barbecue have been received with much enthusiasm here.

Mr. Clifft said that short addresses would be made at the barbecue by John E. Hill of Amarillo, member of the Teachers College board of regents; Dr. J. A. Hill, Lee Gilmore, Wheeler, president of the ex-student association; and John McCarty, who will be master of ceremonies. The main address will be by former Senator R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth, a West Texas State alumnus who is chairman of the board of regents.

Several resolutions will be presented to the gathering. Election of the Potter county candidate for Homecoming queen also is on the program. Homecoming this year will take place Friday night, October 22, and Saturday, October 23. The queen will be crowned at the Homecoming "night club" at Cousins hall Friday night.

The night club will be free. It will feature a western room, a Mexican room, and a fine arts room, with elaborate decorations and costuming of principals. The coronation will conclude the program.

New State Theatre Will Hold Opening Thursday, Oct. 21

The State Theatre, to be the most modern motion picture house in the Texas Panhandle, will be formally opened on Thursday, October 21. Located in downtown Amarillo, the New State will present as its opening attraction Dick Powell and Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians in "Varsity Show."

Many notables of the motion picture industry from the entire Southwest will be present for the radio broadcast over KGNC, while floodlights will beckon West Texas celebrities to the opening also.

DO YOU HAVE AN OPINION?

What do you think?
Do you think?
You do?
What?

Who is winning the war between China and Japan? What are the possibilities of the United States' entering a war? What is being done toward bettering the working and living conditions of the laboring class of people? What do you think about the form of government in the United States comparing it with governments of other nations? Is the United States better off than other nations? Is the economic system the best where there is overproduction, yet people are starving?

To-morrow these questions will play a definite part in our lives. If there is war, who will have to fight and maybe die for their country? Will it be the high school students of today? The prominent men of tomorrow are high school students today. Are you informing yourself in these problems? Does it occur to you to read about them? And after reading about them—

Do you think?

First Grade Gives New Type of Party

Mrs. T. M. Collins' first grade room has been having a new kind of party. The parents of some of the students have been sending refreshments. Instead of playing games, they are discussing manners. The child or children whose parents have sent refreshments serve the other children while they are learning to wait until all have been served to start eating. Those who have sent refreshments are Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Mrs. Bill Money, Mrs. Jack McBroom, and Mrs. R. E. Prichard.

Miss Virginia Jarrett's first grade had a party Friday celebrating Troy Burrus' birthday. They played outside; and then were served cake and hot chocolate which Mrs. B. A. Burrus had sent.

Sewell Cox, '36, spent the week end in Canyon and attended a birthday picnic given in his honor Saturday night at his home. Sewell plays on the football team at Abilene Christian College this year. On the same team are his two brothers, Wesley and Tyson. All three boys are graduates of Canyon High School.

Marielle Oldham, '37, visited with her family in Canyon during the week end. She has been attending college at Lubbock.

Carruth Discusses Rules In Special Meeting

A special meeting of the pupils of the high school was held last Friday in the auditorium. I. B. Carruth, superintendent, discussed the rules of the high school.

Mr. Carruth discussed the reason one should not leave the room between 8:30 and 9 o'clock without a permit from the teacher. He also said no one would be excused from the last study hall for play practice. He said if any one leaves school, during the day, he should come by the office and check out and tell where he is going. When he returns to school he should bring his excuse and receive a permit to class. Mr. Carruth appointed teachers to keep order in the hall. Mr. Brown keeps the top hall, Mr. Hutto the second floor, Mr. Sanders, the boys' locker room, and Miss Freeman the girls' locker room.

The Press Club volunteered to sponsor a lost and found department in the school.

DATE SET FOR HOMECOMING

November 5, has been set aside for homecoming, for the ex-students of Canyon High School.

The Executive Board and Advisory Board met Monday to make plans for the homecoming. The Executive Board is composed of I. B. Carruth, Robbye Foster, Milton Sanders, Virginia Jarrett, Mrs. John Davis, and Mary Ella Davis. The Advisory Board is as follows: Robbye Foster, Cleveland Jones, Milton Sanders, Columbia Redfearn, Mrs. Alfred Bellah and Delbert Lowes.

The officers of the association, this year, are: President, Clarence Thompson; vice president, Newton Harrell; and secretary, Mary Ella Davis.

EX-STUDENTS ARE PEP LEADERS

Carolyn Mayfield and Avent Lair were elected Pep Leaders of the Freshman Pep Squad at West Texas State Teachers College last week.

Carolyn Mayfield was a graduate of the Canyon High School in 1937 and served as one of the pep leaders for the high school last year. Avent Lair attended the Canyon High School when he was a freshman and has been attending the Training School where he was graduated last year.

Billy Greenfield, '36, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Daugherty and friends in Canyon last week end. She has been attending a business college in Lubbock.

Miss Lois Goodrich, Press Club sponsor, spent the week end in Plainview.

Band, Pep Squad, And Members of Student Body Have Bonfire, Pep Rally Thursday

THIRD VICTORY

Pep Squad and Band Entertain Hereford With Social

The Canyon Eagles crushed the Hereford Whitefaces 12 to 0 here Friday night before a shouting crowd of more than 1200 spectators, which nearly filled the Buffalo Stadium.

The Eagles, led by Rusk, scored early in the second quarter, but failed for the extra point. Again in the third quarter Rusk scored and the try for extra point was good, but the Eagles were offside.

The Whitefaces made a desperate attempt to overcome the 12 point lead. They pushed the ball to the 2-yard stripe twice in the fourth quarter, but were unable to push it over for a score.

In the first quarter a cold north wind came up which favored both teams when they were going south. The Eagles made 10 first downs to Hereford's 7 and made 260 yards from the line of scrimmage to the Whitefaces 88.

Both the Eagles and the Whitefaces had fighting ball clubs. It was a well-earned victory for the Eagles.

The probable starting lineup with playing numbers is:

Canyon	wt.	No.	Pos.
Vandergriff	150	40	LE
Brasuel	170	35	LT
Carr	155	38	LG
Butler, Tom	160	36	C
Pope	150	39	RG
Crowley	170	47	RT
Hill (co-c)	150	45	RE
Rusk (c)	180	34	Q
Ford	145	44	LH
Gill	160	33	RH
Butler, D. A.	155	41	QB

Manager Joe Patterson said, "I think we will win."

"Vega thinks they will beat us; naturally I don't think they will," said Coach Brown.

The line-up follows:

Vandergriff	LE	Nunn, R.
Brasuel	LT	Posey
Carr	LG	Rutherford
Butler, Tom	C	Bradley
Pope	RG	Nunn, H.
Crowley	RT	Boyer
Hill (c)	RE	Vaughn
Rusk (c)	QB	Foster
Gill	RH	Vaughn, J. (c)
Ford	LH
Butler, D. A.	FB	Hain

The Hereford Band and Pep Squad marched out on the field at the half. The Pep Squad formed a C and gave a yell for Canyon; then they formed an H and gave a yell for Hereford. As they came off the field, the Canyon Band and Pep Squad marched on. The cornets played to the flags, and the Pep Squad gave signals with purple and white. The Drum Corps played the drum beats.

The spirit which was responsible for the victory over the Hereford team was fired Thursday night, when the band, drum corps, pep squad, members of the student body and business men paraded the streets. To the beat of the drums and playing of the band, the crowd marched from the high school to the college and back to the high school, where they burned the Whitefaces with a bonfire just west of the school building. The school had not realized it had so many backers until Thursday night; therefore, the boys were peppered up to take a victory for the school.

Following the game Friday night, the band and pep squad entertained Canyon football boys, and Hereford's football club, band and pep squad with a social in the grade school gymnasium. When the guests entered the building, all lights were turned off with the exception of a spotlight which hung from a basketball goal, which was decorated with purple and white streamers. The other goal was decorated with purple, white, and maroon streamers, with a mounted eagle sitting on top of the goal. After all had reached the building, Margaret Stewart, president of the Canyon pep squad, took charge and introduced the band directors, coaches, football captains, pep leaders, and drum majors of both towns. Viola Phillips, president of the Hereford pep squad, was also introduced.

Mr. Riemenschneider played several piano selections. Naoma Slay of West Texas State Teachers College played a group of football songs and "Twelfth Street Rag" on the accordian, and Grant Sharman played a trombone solo. At a late hour refreshments of sandwiches, cake and punch were served to the crowd of more than 300 guests.

Moore's Last Minute Field Goal Beats Buffs 16-14

Another football game went the way some story books read when Ross Moore, 175 pound Texas School of Mines' fullback, dropped back on his own 21 yard stripe to kick the field goal that gave his team a 16 to 14 win over the West Texas State Buffaloes at Kidd Field in El Paso, Saturday, before 5,000 with a bare 28 seconds to play.

Plenty of football was crowded into the final minute of the thrill-studded battle. The Buffs had just scored a fourth quarter touchdown that sent them into the lead 14-13. After the kickoff the Muckers were held for downs and were forced to punt. Taking the ball on their own 38, a fumble beset the Buffs. Little Ken Hieneman, Mucker signal-barker, threw a series of passes, and one intended for End Arnold was ruled completed because of interference. The Miner cause was helped by a penalty for slugging which netted them half of the distance to the goal line. Another running play placed the ball in midfield when Moore was called upon to kick the goal that cleared the uprights by mere inches from the 21 yard line.

The first Buffalo counter came early in the opening stanza when they took advantage of Quarterback Thomas' punting. Dow and Thomas pitched in to advance the ball inside the five. From that point, a deceptive play started through the middle with blocking back Carl Matney carrying. He wheeled to lateral to Halfback Watkins who scored standing up. Dow converted from placement.

A little later Odell Washington took the ball around right end for 36 yards and a touchdown, but the play was called back and the Buffs' drew a 15 yard penalty for clipping.

Texas School of Mines had their big moment in the second division when they recorded two touchdowns. The first came when Arnold barely snatched one of Hieneman's long passes and lateraled to Moore who raced down the sidelines unmolested. The play marked up 63 yards.

The other counter resulted from a Buffalo punt that rolled out of bounds on the Buff 36. Hieneman passed to Moore for 13 yards and on the next play Hieneman scooted through tackle for the marker. Moore's kick was wide. Halftime score was 13 to 7.

Watkins' brilliant return of Heineman's punt from his own 48 to the Miner 23 paved the way for the Buff fourth quarter touchdown. Three passes thrown by Watkins approached the last chalk line. Conway Butler dived across for six points from the two yard line. Watkins made the trial for extra point.

The starting line-ups:

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin.—Taking the economy bull by the horns, the Texas senate this week defied Gov. Allred in his refusal to permit it to consider reduction of appropriations, and took up consideration of Grady Woodruff's economy bill, which would slice $4,000,000 off departmental appropriations for the next two fiscal years. Much of the reduction would come from reduction of salaries of state employees drawing over $1500 a year, and from abolition of the jobs of the departmental press agents, who have sprung up all over Austin like a crop of broomweeds. There is no authority in law for the employment of press agents to "sell" the departments and the political minded department heads to the legislature and the newspaper readers of the state, but they are carried on the payrolls by subterfuge, as "educational directors," "information directors," and "statistical experts." The senate by a decisive vote of 20 to 6 overruled Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul, who held that the reduction bill did not come within the governor's call, and permitted introduction of the measure. The vote would indicate the senate will vote decisively to cut the expenditures. Then if Gov. Allred, whose forces dominate the house, should block it there, or if he should veto it, the senate apparently has the governor in a "spot" where they can place the onus for failure to enact new tax bills squarely upon Allred.

Brain Trusters Run Wild

Over on the house side, spectators were treated to a strange sight. Dominated by Allred's ring of youth-fulbrain trusters—the majority of them kids just out of their teens, some still studying law—a subcommittee of the taxation and revenue committee sat for a continuous 13-hour hearing. They bandied figures running into the millions of dollars about like pennies, defied a large delegation of solid citizens who came to protect higher taxes by granting them a scant 45 minutes in the wee hours of Thursday morning to voice their protest, and came out with a $1,000,000 omnibus tax bill that will hike taxes on the oil industry, sulphur, public utilities, cement, and amusements, including movie admissions—from 30 to 50 per cent and more. The bright young minds on the taxation committee—to some of whom the $10 a day they get as legislators represents the maximum earning capacity to date—baited witnesses representing billions of dollars of capital investment in Texas business, and many years of accumulated business wisdom and experience, with obvious delight.

What's the Answer?

With the session half gone, it is becoming increasingly obvious that the Allred program of $15,000,000 of new taxes is sunk without a trace. Whether increased levies amounting to $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 will get through depends largely upon the governor's co-operation with the senate. If Allred clings subbornly to his determination not to permit reduction of governmental expense, it seems a good bet that the senate will not levy a dime of new taxes. If Allred surrenders, the senate may give him some tax increase.

Slap at Loan Sharks

Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul broke one of the rare tie votes in the senate this week to vote in favor of state employees who are being victimized by Austin loan sharks. Sen. Joe Hill offered a resolution asking state department heads to co-operate with their workers in escaping from the clutches of the sharks, who the resolution said, charged 100 to 300 per cent interest, and terrorized employees by threats to report them to their chiefs, when they get behind on payments. The tie vote came on a motion to send the resolution to committee (where it probably would have died). Woodul voted "no," and the senate promptly passed the resolution. The Austin Times, a weekly newspaper, has been exposing and campaigning against the loan sharks, of whom about a dozen have been fattening off low-salaried state employees for months.

Names and News

Curtis Hill, formerly a district attorney in East Texas, and one of the ablest assistants attorney general, has resigned to enter private law practice with a Dallas law firm. Hill, holding down the transportation desk, has won high regard the past three years for his able handling of the state truck and bus legal problems. . . . Gov. Allred, whose close friends, Speaker Bob Calvert, Judge Ralph Yarborough and Gerald Mann are all rumored candidates against Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul for attorney general, issued a formal statement of a "hands off" policy in this race. Calvert's friends are reported to have been putting considerable pressure on the governor to aid the speaker, but with Woodul presiding in the recalcitrant senate, and far out in the lead in the political race, it was no time for Allred to endorse any of his prospective rivals. . . Emmett Morse's bill to permit local option on sale by the drink in the 44 "wettest" counties in Texas was sent back to the liquor control committee for a hearing, and again came out with a favorable report. Morse claims it will yield about $2,000,000 new revenue and simplify enforcement problems. . . . One of the queer features of the pending bill to increase franchise taxes is the fact that it would heavily penalize folks who are trying to accumulate by buying life insurance, so they won't be on the old age pension rolls later on, by taxing them to pay pensions to those who didn't save anything. . . . The senate at the weekend was ready to pass a resolution asking the attorney general to transfer venue in suits filed by vacancy hunters against 250 Polk county farmers from Austin to Polk county district courts. Gordon Burns, Tom Holbrook and Clint Small led the floor fight for the resolution and Burns announced the attorney general had agreed to shift the suits to the home county of the land-owners, if the resolution passed. The vacancy hunters have been one of the bitterest controversial elements in Texas for 20 years—ever since oil development began—and Small has led the fight to curb them for years. The Polk county farmers and their ancestors, are said to have lived on the land to which title is now disputed, for over 100 years, in some cases.

There's nothing like GAS for

Broiling
Gas gives you the intense heat needed to brown meats so fast that loss of juices is prevented. Full flavor is saved.

Roasting
Gas gives you the oven ventilation which produces crisp, juicy roasts. Excess moisture is allowed to escape preventing that flat "steamed flavor."

Baking
Baking requires even heat throughout the oven and unlimited range of baking temperatures, for light, evenly browned cakes, pies, breads. Gas gives both.

Frying
Perfect, speedy frying requires instant high heat—even spread of heat under the skillet—numberless heat variations. Gas gives all three!

Boiling
Faster! Gas brings foods to a boil in two-thirds the time or less of other fuels. More flexible, it gives you the exact shades of heat you need.

Miss Ritchie Talks on Trip to Australia and New Zealand

Miss Jennie C. Ritchie spoke Tuesday at the luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club, describing the trip which she and Dr. Hattie M. Anderson took this summer.

Miss Ritchie devoted most of her talk to Australia. The country is 10,000 miles from the United States, and 11,000 miles from London. Its area is practically that of the United States. The population is only 7,000,000, and the number is decreasing owing to the strict laws on immigration.

The country has six states, only two of which are developed to any extent. One-third of Australia is desert, one-third has sufficient rain for grazing and the other one third has sufficient rain for farming. The climate ranges from tropical to temperate.

president of the United States the president o fthe United States the first English were shipped to Australia, being 800 convicts who were given enough to start development of the country. The land was wrest from the natives a good deal like the land was taken from the Indians of this nation. Three pests are the wild dog, rabbit and the kangaroo, and fences have been built to hold them back.

Wool, cattle, wheat and minerals are the leading products. There are 2700 miles of railroad, all along the coastal country. Excellent highways are maintained.

New Zealand is comprised of two islands. The single tax system is used, with the government owning most of the land and those who use it leasing from the government. Taxes up to 50% are imposed upon large land owners to force them to sell. A social security system like that of this nation is in force.

Miss Ritchie discussed briefly other phases of the summer's trip.

Wes Kleinschmidt was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker.

Visitors present were: Ted Neeley, B. I. Barfield, L. A. Vahue, all of Amarillo, and J. W. Shook of Canyon.

The week's biggest surprise is Hardin-Simmons' 7-0 victory over Loyola University in Gilmore Stadium at Los Angeles, Calif. The invading Texans managed for their score after staving off the Lions for four plays on their one- yard line. A little later Quarterback Mahuron tossed a wide lateral pass to Burns (Canary Legs) McKinney, who sprinted 65 yards through the Loyola defense for what proved to be the winning margin. In view of this unexpected win, it looks as if the Buffs will go into their first game this season when they're not given at least an even break to win.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Mr. Bradley of Indianapolis, Indiana, has been with us this week to assist in the promotion program of the church. Through his very able assistance we have been able to make a very fine start upon this campaign. Because of a schedule difficulty, Mr. Bradley will not fill the puplit Sunday as has been previously announced.

Services for Sunday will be as follows:

Bible School, 9:45 a. m.
Morning Worship, 11 o'clock.
Evening Worship, 7:30 o'clock.
Young People, 8:10 p. m.

The subject for the morning service will be "The Great Frontier." Evening service will be "Behind the Wheel."

Christian Fellowship Club

Last Sunday found some forty young people enjoying a very lively discussion upon whether they should go to church or not. Because of the opinion expressed by several upon worshipping in Nature's settings, the subject will be "Back to Nature or back to the pew."

Refreshments will be served after the social period.

The undertaker's son who worked as a grave-digger all summer became an All-American halfback because of his deadly accuracy in punting out of bounds in the coffin corner.

A St. Louis chef protested against giving dishes fancy names, which ought to go over big with folks who like to call a spade a spade and a potato a potato.
